pro tips: if the cops ask to search anything (yr person, bag, car) even if you are sure it's empty ask if they have a warrant & repeat that you don't consent to any searches, ask for a lawyer, & #STFU. • while being detained & arrested are slightly different — you can only be arrested w/ a warrant or “probable cause” while you can be detained for “reasonable suspicion” — they should be treated the same • in either case if you get to the “am i free to go” part, try walking away calmly as you say it #STFU #STFU #STFU #STFU #STFU #STFU #STFU #STFU #STFU

there is literally nothing you can say that will end this more quickly or more leniently no matter what the cops intimate • they have only 3 goals here: info to destroy you (they know what this is & you don't — no matter how expert you feel); info to destroy other people (same); and to fuck with you • that's it: those are the only outcomes from talking • also it will annoy them if you shut the fuck up and that is satisfying so do your best to enjoy this, silence is golden.
